LIVING EXPENSES

As study in Australia consultants, we estimate that an average international student in Australia spends about 12000 to 14000 AUD/year on accommodation, food, clothing, entertainment, transport, international and domestic travel, telephone and incidental costs. While this is a realistic guide, it is important to remember that individual circumstances will vary by location, course and lifestyle.

HEALTH INSURANCE

It is compulsory for all international students to have an Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for themselves and their dependents, where applicable, for the intended period of stay. The premium for OSHC is to be paid once you accept the offer. The current cost for OSHC ranges between AUD 650-700 approx per annum depending on the duration of your studies.
