Why Education in ITALY?

The universities in Italy were established in the 12th century offering them the oldest in the Western world. The restructuring of the Italian education system originated the new concept of University institutions across the rest of Europe. With its powerful historical aura, breathtaking sites and diverse natural landscape Italy are sure to provide international students with an enriching aesthetic experience. The fields of design, fashion, applied sciences, engineering, arts and architecture lie at the forefront of Italy's domain of higher education.

Studying in Italy has been the most popular destination for many international students since ages, by offering high-quality education, top-ranked universities and at an affordable tuition fee than many other Western European countries. For these reasons, many internationals choose to study abroad in Italy.

Highlights

The Education System in Italy

Italy had played a significant role in the recent amelioration of higher education known as “Bologna Process”, created the European Area of Higher Education. In the 1990s, Italy’s education system underwent reformation based on the Bologna Process, which aims to build a compatible system of education throughout Europe. Italy’s higher education is formed in a binary system consisting of two main articulations: the university sector and the non-university sector. Presently, the university sector in Italy has 89 universities listed within the following categories:

- 58 state universities – public entities endowed with scientific, teaching, bookkeeping autonomy managerial and financial
- 17 non-State universities (legally recognized by the State).
- 2 Universities for foreigners.
- 6 Higher schools specialized in postgraduate university studies.
- 6 Telemetric universities.

The non-university sector includes 4 education typologies with their institutions:

- Higher schools of design: polytechnics for the arts, academies of fine arts, higher institutes for applied arts, music conservatories and recognized music institutes, higher institutes for musical and choreographic studies, national academies.
- Higher education in language mediation: higher schools for language mediators.
- Higher integrated education (FIS): programmes of higher technical education & training (IFTS)
- A few specific fields (e.g. archiving, diploma tics, restoration, military studies, etc.) which, along with their respective institutions, fall under the supervision of ministries other than that of Education.

Academic Calendar

The academic year in Italy has two semesters. The first semester starts from the month of September/ October and ends in January/February. The second semester starts from the month February and ends in July. The start and finish dates vary in different universities but each semester lasts for about 20 weeks comprising of 14 weeks for teaching period lasting and around 6 weeks for the exam period
